

NEWSbulletin

2 August 2018

Welcome to Gas Industry Co's News Bulletin, a periodic advisory of new and current consultations, workstream developments, publications and presentations.

In this issue:

- GTAC: Outputs from the 10 – 12 July workshop for consultation.
- Consumer switching numbers for July 2018 available.

GTAC: Extension to consultation on the outputs from the 10-12 July workshop.

In the 25 July 2018 News Bulletin, First Gas published a number of documents. One set of those documents related to the outputs from the 10 – 12 July workshop, which First Gas had sought industry feedback on by 7 August 2018.

Further to stakeholder requests, First Gas has extended the consultation period. Feedback is now invited by 5.00pm on Monday 13 August 2018.

Please make your submissions here, where you can also find the documents on the outputs from the 10 – 12 July workshop.

Consumer switching numbers for July 2018.

The Gas Registry statistics recording gas consumer switching numbers for July 2018 are available here.

There were 4,036 completed customer switches during July 2018 – 279 more than June 2018, and 14 less than July 2017.

For the last couple of years switching numbers and the time they take to complete have been relatively stable. In the last 12 months we saw on average 3,817 switches taking place a month and they took on average two days to complete. During that time the highest numbers of switches occurred in May 2018 (4,360) and January 2018 saw the lowest (3,227).
